Back in 1972, WTVT actually did carry Search for Tomorrow and the 12:30 network programming...in later years in the 80s onward, they didn't. I don't think they ever aired Capitol or Bold and the Beautiful.

Those two aired at 1:30. Sometime in the 80s, Search for Tomorrow moved to NBC.

Need Help Finding TV Schedules (Affiliation Switches & First Day of Broadcasting)

Hi! I am Route66Fan & this is my first time posting to RadioDiscussions.com.

I need help trying to find the schedules from the following TV Stations in these areas:

1. Columbia-Jefferson City, MO - KOMU-TV Ch. 8 (NBC) & what was then KCBJ-TV Ch. 17 (ABC) when they switched networks on August 7 & 8, 1982 with Ch. 8 going from NBC to ABC & Ch. 17 going from ABC to NBC & when they reversed the switch on December 31, 1985-January 1, 1986 with Ch. 8 reverting back to NBC & Ch. 17 reverting back to ABC & changing their callsign to KMIZ-TV.

2. Springfield, MO - What was then ABC affiliate KDEB-TV (later a Fox affiliate with the callsign KSFX-TV, now My Network TV affiliate KOZL-TV) Ch. 27 going independent & KSPR-TV Ch. 33 (before then, an independent) picking up the ABC affiliation (April 2 & 3, 1986).

3. Topeka, KS - What was then KTSB-TV Ch. 27 (NBC, now KSNT-TV) first day of broadcasting (December 28, 1967), & What was then KLDH-TV (now KTKA-TV) Ch. 49 (ABC) first day of broadcasting (June 20, 1983).

4. Sedalia-Warrensburg, MO - KMOS-TV Ch. 6 last day of being a commercial CBS affiliate & semi-satellite of KRCG-TV Ch. 13, Columbia-Jefferson City, MO (August 15, 1978) & their first day as a Non-commercial PBS station (December 22, 1979).

5. Ottumwa, IA-Kirksville, MO - What was then independent station KOIA-TV Ch. 15 (now Fox affiliate KYOU-TV) first day of broadcasting (May 14, 1985) & also their schedule from April 5, 1987.

6. Joplin, MO & Pittsburg, KS - KOAM-TV Ch.7 (then NBC, now CBS) & what was then KTVJ-TV Ch. 16 (then CBS, now NBC) switching networks & Ch. 16 changing it's callsign to KSNF-TV & joining the Kansas State Network (September 4 & 5, 1982) as well as Ch. 16 first day of broadcasting as KUHI-TV (January 4, 1968).

7. Kansas City, MO - What was then independent station KBMA-TV Ch. 41 (now NBC affiliate KSHB-TV) first day of broadcasting (August 10, 1970), What was then independent station KEKR-TV Ch. 62 (later KZKC-TV, now KSMO-TV) first day of broadcasting (September 12, 1983) & also, What was then WB affiliate KCWB-TV Ch. 29 (now CW affiliate KCWE-TV) first day of broadcasting (Saturday, September 14, 1996) & any schedules from KMCI-TV Ch. 38 during their early days of being an independent station (circa late 1995-Fall 1996) after having carried the Home Shopping Club fulltime since 1988.

Sorry for such a long post, but I've been interested in finding these schedules for some time now, but don't have access to most newspaper archives. Please help me to find these schedules, Thank you.

Does anybody know where I could find these schedules?

i have posted a couple schedules from these areas but not the affiliation switches

Ok, Thank you. I'm still interested in finding these schedules. What are some good free newspaper archives I could use?

I'm guessing Google News Archive is one place, but I usually have had a hard time navigating it.

I found a site that might have the some of the Missouri TV Listings I am looking for, but the site is kind of unorganized.

CBS News Coverage

NBC News Coverage

ABC News Coverage

My grandmom watched NBC's coverage, likely because was used to watching The Doctors in that 2:30 time slot.(so she heard Frank McGee's announcement, not Walter Cronkite's.)

4—Trans-Pacific Satellite Special

President Kennedy, NASA director James Web and Japanese Ambassador to the United States Kōichirō Asakai take part in the first experimental transmission via relay satellite from the U.S. to Japan. Present power will permit only one-way east-to-west transmission.

Scheduled to air on channel 4 that day at 3:30 PM. Yikes! :(

<https://youtu.be/749gdCqSXuo>

I believe that special was to be hosted by Frank McGee, since the satellite(along with The Doctors and pretty much every NBC show then) was an RCA product. Makes sense, doesn't it?

Great listings could anyone add the weekend schedules for November 23 and 24, 1963, please?

November 23 can probably be arranged, but November 24 might be a tall order, since weekly TV schedules were usually released on Sundays, and programming info would have been sketchy at press time.

But I'll see if I can scrape something together.

The Special which never aired was hosted by both Frank McGee of NBC and Jules Bergman of ABC.

CBS News Coverage

The video of CBS's coverage got blocked.

Aww, lame. Thanks for letting me know.

there was a video on YouTube, during As the World Turns where there was a CBS News bulletin on the coverage of the JFK shooting, i don't know if it's still on there

The CBS Evening News was scheduled to air a feature that night on an English musical group that was causing quite a stir.

That was a feature on the CBS Morning News (10 AM) earlier. I guess they were repurposing it for the evening news.

Today, Wheel and Jeopardy! air on WTHR/NBC 13.

This was back when WRTV 6 was airing the ABC daytime lineup on a one day delay, following the Central/Pacific time zone schedule year round to try to improve ratings. Once Indiana began observing daylight savings time, they went back to the regular Eastern schedule.

'Quincy' and 'Gold Monkey' had been cancelled and the 'nets were burning off reruns or remaining episodes at this point. CBS had a particularly weak scheduled for this night at this time.

from The Pittsburgh Press

22 WPTT Ind Pittsburgh

11:00 Prisoner

You mean Prisoner: Cell Block H, the Australian soap about prison that was very popular here in the early 80's?

Yes, that was the same "Prisoner: Cell Block H" that was retitled in the United States and other countries outside Australia. It was also called "Caged Women" in Canada for legal reasons.

So it appears no As the World Turns at that time in Pittsburgh and Capitol on a one day delay.

Yes, for many years (between the 1960s and 1990), KDKA preempted As the World Turns. Between 1978 and 1990, the local magazine Pittsburgh 2Day aired on its place.

Match Game was likely in reruns as it had gone out of production the previous year. WPXI would air the reruns in 1985 and 1986.

Stations were still hanging on to "Mary Tyler Moore" from 1977 - those must have been long contracts. WPXI might have still had the rights to it at this time, but it never did well in reruns.

Independent stations were fun back in those days.

Odd times for shows--3:00 Wheel of Fortune on WSMV and News at 12:30pm on WKRN. I think it was Fall 1994 when Wheel of Fortune moved to WKRN at 6:30 where it has remained.

I've never heard of syndicated WOF having such an early time slot. It would be nice if WKRN would air it that early once in a while. They pre-empt Wheel every Monday during football season for a local Titans show, or any day the Titans play in a non-Thursday game. They also pre-empt it on several Thursdays throughout the year with roundtable discussion specials from News 2.

Jeopardy! now airs its primary run on WZTV/FOX and its secondary run on WUXP/MyTV. Not sure when it moved.

For a number of years in the late 1990s, both Jeopardy! and Wheel aired on WUXP (ch. 30) on weeknights at 6 and 6:30pm, respectively.

Look at that lineup..My grandmother, by the way watched The Doctors over House Party and Another World over To Tell The Truth, and Days of Our Lives over Love is A Many Splendored Thing. All other shows were CBS.....expect for Concentration.

10:00

4-6- Snap Judgment (an NBC show on WTEV, why?)

Because WJAR ran a movie -- well, part of one -- from 9 to 10:30.

12:00 News

Interesting seeing NBC affiliates 2 and 6 airing Days of our Lives at 9:00am and Donahue at 12:30pm with Search for Tomorrow pushed back to 1:30pm. It's interesting to see how NBC stations switched things up airing soaps in the morning, mostly Santa Barbara. Also, the morning lineup of Bewitched at 11 followed by Voltron, Defender of the Universe at 11:30 were unusual programs pre-empting the ABC offerings at 11:00am-Noon on WVII 7.

WAGM still airs Wheel of Fortune in the same slot today. Interesting that the market didn't seem to carry Jeopardy! just yet. Of course, it now airs on WAGM at 7:30 after Wheel.

As for Portland, both shows now air on WMTW.

In addition, Bangor had neither Wheel nor Jeopardy! at this time. WAGM was a primary CBS affiliate, but aired ABC's superior morning show actually KOKI's listings were shown, at first i didn't know they weren't until i realized, so i may have to correct this listing

Show it then. I think KOKI started its news department by then.

EDIT: Never mind. KOKI didn't start theirs until 2002.

Loving this line-up as I lived in Escondido as a child (1962-65).

When did Wheel and Jeopardy! move to KABC?

Fall of 1992, and before that, both shows were on KCBS for a few years. Jeopardy's first season originally aired on KCBS, but they dropped the show around mid-season. KCOP picked it not long after, to go along with Wheel of Fortune.

3:00 Match Game

3:30 Hollywood Squares

This should be The Match Game-Hollywood Squares Hour. I guess the listings printed it as two separate shows.

WBBH still carries nighttime Wheel of Fortune in the same slot today, with Jeopardy! obviously taking over 7:30.

In Tampa, Wheel and Jeopardy! moved over to WFTS once its affiliation moved from FOX to ABC. They moved back to WTSP (now CBS) in 2012 when Scripps dropped them on all their stations in favor of their own game shows.

Wait a minute... so WFTS and WTOG both carried The Flintstones at the same time?

I think the Flintstones show WFTS aired was Fred Flintstone & Friends, which was a syndicated package of other H-B shows of the past (Pebbles & Bamm-Bamm, The Flintstone Comedy Hour, Jeannie, Goober & The Ghost Chasers, Yogi's Gang and Partridge Family in Outer Space).

so probably two different Flintstones shows.

Yes. The one WTOG aired was the original prime time series (1960-66).

WBBH still carries nighttime Wheel of Fortune in the same slot today, with Jeopardy! obviously taking over 7:30.

In Tampa, Wheel and Jeopardy! moved over to WFTS once its affiliation moved from FOX to ABC. They moved back to WTSP (now CBS) in 2012 when Scripps dropped them on all their stations in favor of their own game shows.

not only that, WWSB was also carrying Wheel and Jeopardy! when WTSP reacquired local rights for both of them for the entire Tampa Bay market, which forced WWSB to remove the shows as well.

33 Real Stories of the Highway Patrol

35 To the Contrary

Of the three stations here that carried Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy, only WPBN 7 still carries them both today. In Milwaukee, they are now on WDJT 58 (CBS), and in Green Bay, they are now on WLUK 11. Both air Jeopardy! at 7 ET/6 CT with Wheel afterwards.

For the shows' first ten years, Wheel and Jeopardy aired in Traverse City on WGTU 29, which was surprising considering how cheaply run that station was at the time. They also had Live! with Regis and Kathie Lee and Oprah Winfrey in addition to Wheel/Jeopardy (it may have had to do with WZZM in Grand Rapids having the GR rights to those shows in the late 1980s and early 1990s; in the analog days, Big Rapids, Ludington, and Manistee got a better ABC signal from WZZM than WGTU).

Green Bay and Milwaukee are two rare markets in the Central Time Zone that air Wheel and Jeopardy back to back, forgoing 6pm news.

KDBC El Paso (CBS) airs them both from 6-7 as well. So does KVHP Lake Charles (FOX), but in the opposite order. They are the only affiliate in the entire Central Time Zone that airs Wheel at 6:00 PM Central. The rest air it exclusively at 6:30, although WLUK Green Bay always airs Wheel an hour early at 5:30 on days where the show is pre-empted (mostly by Thursday Night Football pregame).

KDBC is in the Mountain Time Zone, but prime time also starts at 7pm local in that time zone RTE One in London? Very unlikely. I can imagine that in Northern Ireland or Western Wales but not in London.

The Guardian included a page with regional variations across the UK. RTÉ One was one of the channels listed. It's strange that Scottish channels weren't mentioned by the paper.

I cleaned it up a bit.

Thanks for doing that.

The Archie Comedy Hour was the top rated Saturday morning show back then, and WHDH/ch. 5 didn't clear it?? Also, how could chs. 10 and 12 in Providence both run Wacky Races?

What was WHDH supposed to do with "Archie"? It was an hour show and WHDH was committed to a newscast leading into its ratings powerhouse candlepin bowling block.

As for "Wacky Races" on two Providence channels, "This Week in Pro Football" was a one-hour show, but the WJAR schedule shows it as a half-hour. This looks like an error in the original editing of the WJAR schedule -- it makes more sense for a football highlights show to lead into bowling (most likely the syndicated show from Akron, Ohio) and then into live AFL football then to break up the sports block with a children's show like "Wacky Races." My guess is that only Channel 12 was running "Wacky Races."

It did get cleared in Boston via WSBK at 2pm

Ah, I did miss that. Thanks.

With "Jonny Quest" as a lead-in as the last of WSBK's kiddie programming for the day before wrestling and the afternoon movie. Note also that Channel 38 aired "Wacky Races" that morning, another show that WHDH didn't want.

Notice that three different stations (WMUR 9, WPRI 12, and WSBK 38) pre-empted scheduled programming for a Billy Graham crusade Money talks and the Graham ministry was rolling in it. If their travelin' salvation show was coming to New England, it was standard operating procedure to buy time on stations in every market to try to bump up the turnout.

Surprised the Cincinnati ABC affiliate aired a four year old movie (at that time) in the 8PM slot instead of the network programming.

Otherwise, Madison only had about five channels that all generally aired the same syndicated and/or network programming. The death of the independent station really limited the choice of programming here, at least for OTA viewers. Subchannels have really improved things!

I may make a guess that "Astronaut/Odie" (7:30 AM, ch. 9) was The Astronut Show, a Terrytoons program which was a spinoff of Deputy Dawg, and The King & Odie which was syndicated repeats of King Leonardo & His Short Subjects.

That's my thought too.

Here's some info on the Odie show:

https://www.bcdb.com/cartoons/Other...rdo_and_His_Short_Subjects/The_King_and_Odie/

Yes it's a cartoon. I actually remember watching this.

We lived up on a hill in Pittsburgh where we could get WSTV's signal.

I was a preschooler. If I was awake early my dad would put this on for me to keep me entertained while he got ready for work.

I was a pre-schooler when it aired as King Leonardo & His Short Subjects in 1960 Saturday mornings on NBC (the only other cartoon show on Saturday mornings back then was Mighty Mouse on CBS). I watched it as The King & Odie when it aired mornings just before school started in our area (metro San Diego at the time).

Surprised the short lived 'USA Today' News Magazine had such a bad timeslot in this market.

so when would This Morning's Business move from WCBS to WNBC?

I don't know for sure, but I presume it was in the '94-'95 timeframe. TMB was a product of FNN at the time of this schedule and that network flamed out a few years later with the nascent CNBC picking up some of the pieces. The syndication contract likely had to run its course before the NBC affiliate could be 'voluntold' to carry it, so I presume that would've shaken out about that timeframe.

I was an avid watcher of 'This Morning's Business' from 1995-2000. I think the show folded in 2000 or shortly thereafter. It was a well made show.

so you were a huge fan of the show.

In New York, Inside Edition now airs on WCBS at 7:00 with ET at 7:30, just like WFSB then and now. Seems WPIX didn't have its WB affiliation yet (now CW), and Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy! would eventually swap time slots on WTNH in CT.

Looks familiar. I was living in a house in Pittsburgh that was not wired for cable at the time.

Some pre-emptions in 1997!

WTAE pre-empted Real Friends and The City, while WEWS moved Real Friends to late night. Also find it kind of odd that WFMJ and WTOV aired Oprah and WTRF aired Live! as those shows seemed to air mostly on ABC stations (WTRF and WTOV can be explained as its shared market didn't have an ABC affiliate)

And similarly, WEWS also aired Mike & Maty in late night during that show's run in favor of Live with Regis and Kathie Lee airing at 11AM. They even did that with The View in that show's early days before The Morning Exchange was cancelled in 1999, at which point, Regis and Kathie Lee moved to 9AM.

Cool, I've always wondered what syndicated programs Foxnet aired when they weren't airing Fox network programming. Looks like they replayed quite a few of their syndie shows throughout the day though, i.e. I see two airings of Real Stories of the Highway Patrol, Cops, Baywatch, Judge Judy and a couple others. I very vaguely remember Court TV: Inside America's Courts, which aired on WOIO in Cleveland. I've never heard of Strange Universe, so I don't think that show aired in Cleveland/Akron at all. Growing up, although we'd always had at least one TV in our house connected to cable, we'd have a couple others around the house connected to antennas, which would pick up not just the Cleveland/Akron stations but WFMJ and WKBN in Youngstown as well. If WYTV ever came through, it would often come in black-and-white with staticky audio.

Did many cable systems in the Youngstown area carry Foxnet prior to the launch of WYFX? I think some may have carried WOIO and later WJW in Cleveland or WPGH in Pittsburgh to fill that void. While there are quite a few old-school Youngstown TV recordings available on YouTube, Foxnet recordings are much harder to find.

And does anyone happen to know what syndie shows Foxnet aired on the weekends?

Lastly, my understanding is WYTV occasionally aired Fox programs, such as Cops and America's Most Wanted, in ABC's off-network hours in the '90s (mostly late night) before WYFX came along. I've heard they'd even aired Fox's Sunday NFL coverage on occasion on days when ABC wasn't airing any sports.

WYTV was one of several ABC affiliates that didn't air NYPD Blue in the show's first season because of the program's content. The irony is the station did air it in syndication on the weekends once the reruns were syndicated, and of course by that time, all ABC stations were airing the first-run episodes.

And I think Jerry Springer disappeared from the Youngstown market for a while around the mid to late '90s up until WYFX signed on. And Real Stories of the Highway Patrol eventually moved to WKBN at 5:30 PM. It would have been a bit more appropriate if WKBN-TV had picked up Rush Limbaugh instead of WYTV since WKBN AM 570 airs his radio show.

Why did WNEO/WEAO not air Bill Nye the Science Guy during the day? Wasn't that the show's first season? I know WVIZ in Cleveland (their competitor up north) aired it during the first season.

I was born on this week, but on Thursday, October 26th, 1995.

I didn't think Stephanie Miller's TV show ever aired in Cleveland. I'm not surprised I don't remember that though if it was on late at night.

Brand Spanking New Doug, Recess, Pepper Ann.

How did a CBS affiliate air One Saturday Morning, instead of ABC?, that is unusual. :eek:

Maybe because WTAE preempted all ABC weekend morning programming.

WPTT UPN 22

11:00 ECW Hardcore TV

12:00 WWF (not WCW) Shotgun Saturday Night

So how could an NBC affiliate air ABC's college football games? Did any other stations do that?

At the time, Steubenville/Wheeling didn't have its own ABC station

Also, WYTV and WTRF had secondary FOX affiliations (mostly for NFL games) at this time

Do you know if KDKA aired the ABC saturday cartoon lineup or was an error of the paper?

I sort of remember Mounties (on WKBN). WBNX picked it up in Cleveland/Akron. Don't think there are any episodes of it on YouTube or anywhere else.

Looks like WPXI's broadcast of baseball pre-empted Wheel of Fortune, unless they didn't carry the weekend run at the time. They do now, but I notice they often air it at 4:00 AM instead of the usual 7:30 PM.

In Youngstown, Wheel and Jeopardy! (seemingly with no weekend run carried at the time because of Cash Explosion) are now on WKBN.

Also seems that both were pre-empted on WTOV Steubenville by sports. Oddly, up until very recently (like a month or two ago), Wheel and Jeopardy! aired in reverse order on Saturdays on WTOV (Jeopardy! first M-F, Wheel first Sat). They now air in their usual order, but a few stations such as WTOV Terre Haute still swap them on Saturdays as well.

i know the other thread has some of the same listings, but this one had WSET-13 & WDBJ-7 from Roanoke as well as WHAG-25 from Hagerstown, WHSV-3 from Harrisonburg, and WVIR-29 from Charlottesville to eliminate confusion.

probably so yeah.

Wheel and Jeopardy! are now on WDBJ in Roanoke.

When were they dropped in Hagerstown? Was it when WHAG lost their NBC affiliation?

yes

They had been carrying both since at least 1985. Listings I have from December 1984 do not show Jeopardy. Ones in mid 1985 do

Kind of unusual for WSLS to not be listed when the other two VHF stations in the Roanoke market were.

Speaking of WHAG, I read somewhere that there was a movement in the early 1990s to officially make Hagerstown part of its own market (with Martinsburg and Winchester; now-WWPX was proposed to become the CBS affiliate and WHSV would have served as the ABC affiliate; FOX would have come from WTTG and/or WWCP). If it had happened, the DC market would have dropped out of the top 10.

Now-WDVM has been added to a few systems in the core DC metro area:

Comcast (Montgomery County only)

Verizon Fios (marketwide)

WIBW Topeka and KQTV St. Joseph still carry Wheel of Fortune today, with KQTV now having two runs of Jeopardy! as well.

In Kansas City, Wheel now airs on WDAF; it's one of the few FOX affiliates that carries the show.

I kinda remember some of these TV stations having these schedules.

I wonder why both KCTV & WDAF were airing Ricki Lake, especially since they are both KC stations.

I would like to find the rest of the schedules for KCWB & KMCI.

Ricki Lake was switching stations in Kansas City at the time: the old episodes stayed on WDAF, while the new ones aired on KCTV. It's strange to see a switch in the middle of the week!

Oh, Ok. I do remember Ricki Lake airing on KCTV & later WDAF, but I wasn't aware that it had aired briefly on both TV stations for a short time. Yeah it is kind of strange. I wonder what caused the show to change TV stations.

Wow. TV in the 80s really did stink. :)

'Three's A Crowd' was at, or near, it's last network airing. A few weeks after this 'Growing Pains' debuted in that spot and continued for the next seven seasons.

Very interesting that this listing included TVO, CBEFT, and the SIN translator

WDIV Detroit still carries Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy! today, but swapped. When did the switch happen?

WTOL also still carries them, now with Jeopardy! at 7:30 to compliment Wheel as with the rest of the Eastern Time Zone, of course.

Was the 12:30 WOF on CKCO the NBC daytime version, or the syndicated version?

Probably NBC daytime. Also notice CKCO carried Another World (NBC) and General Hospital (ABC), as well as American prime time programming and CBS News Nightwatch

Very interesting that this listing included TVO, CBEFT, and the SIN translator

Yes, I was not even aware of that translator. How did that work out with a full-power station being on 66 in Flint?

I remember living in the area watching the Flintstones in French on CBEFT.

My young daughter got a kick out of it.

The Price Is Right prime time special (8 PM, ch. 34) was the final show of the six-episode run.

Am I the only person who finds it weird that not one "Big 3" Miami station stayed on 24/7 at this time?

I know South Florida was smaller population-wise in '86, but for a market it's size during that time, it's unusual to have not had one station running Headline News or the overnight network newscast. Heck, channel 12 up the road beat them to the punch it appears!

This kept going (I think) until the affiliate switch in '89. WSVN and WTVJ became mostly 24 hour stations (I think WTVJ still signed off late-nights on weekends).. WPLG was still regularly signing off into the early 90's at around 3am.

When I last lived there in 2011, the lone sign-off holdout was WFOR, Who always programmed "Weather/Radar" during the 4-5am hour on Saturday and Sunday AM. Radar loop with NOAA weather radio in the background. They had started this at WCIX for some reason in the late 80's-early 90's I do believe.

Remember that in Miami, even back in '86, there were "The Big Two" and then the "next four".

Univision and Telemundo captured the biggest shares for news, prime and even daytime. Then we got the traditional network affiliates and the rest of them.

Sign offs

What time did these stations signed off on that day?

4 looked to be signing off 2:30-3am

7 signed off from 2-5am

10 signed off at 3am.

23 signed off around 2 after the late movie (still better than most SIN affiliates at the time which would sign off around midnight)

I think channel 6 was mostly all-night at this time, being the predominant independent station. I do know they would sign off at least once a week for maintenance.

Bring up a good point. By then, Spanish had become the predominant language in Dade. You didn't really see a lot of Spanish speaking folks moving north to Broward or North Dade until after Andrew.

What's odd is WSCV is nowhere to be seen in these listings. By then they were on with 100% Spanish programming. They must have been a distant second to WLTV or someone never bothered to contact them about getting their TV listings!

Not exactly true. Back in the early 80's we used to joke about Jose Martinez who moved to Broward and called himself Joe Martin. In fact, one of my biggest concerns when managing WHTT (Y-100's sister station) was that the signal did not cover the growing Broward Hispanic population, which I why I voted in '81 against consolidating Dade and Broward, and David Ross down the hall voted to join the two markets!

What's odd is WSCV is nowhere to be seen in these listings. By then they were on with 100% Spanish programming. They must have been a distant second to WLTV or someone never bothered to contact them about getting their TV listings!

Channel 51 became really aggressive around 1983 when Julio Rumbaut (formerly of WQBA and WSUA) came on as manager and "founder" of the new programming. It quickly jumped to second place in prime and in the news blocks, of course.

4 NFL Football

Special: The Los Angeles Rams (11-5 in 1980) vs. the Chargers (11-5) in an exhibition game, taped at San Diego. The Rams made the playoffs for the 8th consecutive time last year, but in the unfamiliar role of wild card. To recapture the NFC West crown, Los Angeles is counting on Pat Haden's return to the starting slot after two seasons of injuries and back-up work to Canadian emigrant Vince Ferragamo...If the past three years under the tutelage of Don Coryell are any indication, a berth in the Super Bowl is a real possibility for San Diego this season. Since Coryell became coach, the Chargers have inched closer and closer to the NFL title game-last year losing the AFC Championship to Oakland. Frank Gifford, Howard Cosell and Fran Tarkenton report from San Diego Stadium. [Preempts regular programming.]

7 Good Evening, Captain

Special: The host of TV's longest running children's show-Bob Keeshan-celebrates his silver jubilee. Taped before the 54-year-old Keeshan suffered a heart attack last month (from which he's still recovering), the hour salutes the Captain in musical-comedy sequences geared to young people and their parents that entertain and enlighten both. For adults, there's a supermarket tour in which the Captain offers a tongue-in-cheek monologue on inflation; and a running sketch that casts Jean Stapleton as the Captain's most ardent fan. For kids: songs and pantomimes by the Magic Carpet Band; and a domestic spoof spotlighting Ted Lange, Ja'net DuBois, Todd Bridges, Kim Fields and LaWanda Page.

The 3-part episode of Family Matters that ABC was finishing up on this night was where Steve Urkel & a friend of his invented couple of teleportation pads that he & the Winslow family used to take a trip to Paris, France. While there they end up running into some bad guys who wan't to steal the teleportation pad that his friend had. The episode - or at least this part of it - is called "Paris Vacation, Part 3". I remember watching this episode on this night, but on KMBC-TV Ch. 9 in Kansas City, MO.

Unusual that KTVI kept their late newscast at 10pm instead of moving it to 9pm. Also unusual that KTVI aired kids' programming on weekdays (especially being a VHF FOX affiliate that was a former Big Three affiliate)

aired before kids get out of school

What channels will carry NewsNet?

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/NewsNet#Affiliates>

It's mostly on low-power TV stations (For now.).

They also have a Roku channel, however I'm not sure if it runs the E/I block. I've watched them a few times, nothing too over the top for me.

If I remember correctly, NewsNet provides a 90-minute E/I block every weekend late-mornings between 10:30 a.m. and noon Eastern.

I am guessing that these were cable listings?

There is no way that you're going to get WKBD in Escanaba over the air.

Correct (WKBD and WWTV had microwave links into the UP at the time). WKBD actually remained on cable in the UP until it dropped FOX for UPN (it was the first of five FOX affiliates to serve the Upper Peninsula)

There was a TV version of 'Cricket in Times Square'?! I loved that book as a kid.

Sure was. Chuck Jones made it.

Kind of odd that NBC (Carried on both WDAF-TV Ch. 4, Kansas City, MO & KSNT-TV Ch. 27, Topeka, KS, at the time.) did not seem to have programming at 6PM Central at this time.

This schedule is from about almost 4 months after KLDH-TV Ch. 49 (Now KTKA-TV.), Topeka, KS, came on the air.

Looks like WJW was Cleveland's home for "Trash TV" in 1999 with Jerry Springer, Ricki Lake, and Maury back to back to back

Looking back, now it sure seems that way. However, that was the line up on most FOX stations. Most of those talk shows ended up on UPN/WB (Now, CW and MyTV)

The shock talk shows invaded WJW's schedule for a while beforehand too, once the station switched from CBS to Fox. Just four years earlier, the daytime schedule consisted of Gabrielle Carteris, Geraldo Rivera, Mark Walberg, Tempestt Bledsoe, Carnie Wilson and Ricki Lake, along with Charles Perez in the late night hours and Night Stand on the weekends. They also had George and Alana at 9AM, which was more of a Regis and Kathie Lee-style show. Jerry Springer and Maury Povich were on WKYC at that time.

Wheel and Jeopardy! are now on WOIO/CBS 19 due to all Scripps-owned stations dropping the two in 2012.

Channel 3 (CBS) of Hartford didn't air "The Price Is Right"? I thought they had only done that in the days of "Hour Magazine" a couple of years later? As these listings show, Dr. Gene Scott and his people were operating channel 18 of Hartford. Channel 20 of Waterbury was still a secondary NBC affiliate for a few more months. The following stations had yet to sign on:

WHPX-TV (ION) channel 26 of New London [As WTWS-TV (IND) in September 1986]

WCTX-TV (MY) channel 59 of New Haven [As WTVU-TV (WB), later WBNE-TV, in 1995]

WTIC-TV (FOX) channel 61 of Hartford [September 17, 1984]

It looks like news was almost unheard of before 6:30 AM or between 4 to 6 PM! :eek:

"The One Where Phoebe Runs." Joey finds sexy Janine, a dancer from Australia, as a roommate. Rachel and Phoebe go jogging together to bond. Phoebe runs like an elephant because it makes running a lot more fun but Rachel doesn't want to go jogging with her anymore because she is embarrassing. Joey can't flirt with Janine because they live together and it would be too complicated. Chandler finds out how obsessed Monica is with everything and he has to move the furniture back to how it was before he moved it. Joey is drawn to Janine and has to find a way to repel her. But Janine tells him she doesn't feel attracted to him anyway. Rachel tries Phoebe's way of running and feels so free and great doing it that she doesn't care about people staring. Rachel Green: Jennifer Aniston, Monica Geller: Courteney Cox-Arquette, Joey Tribbiani: Matt LeBlanc, Ross Geller: David Schwimmer, Janine: Elle Macpherson.

"The Mouth that Roared." Radio shock-jock Denise Steiner declares on a TV show 'in jest' she would have to kill her birth mother, who abandoned her after birth, if she ever found her after all of these years. While Mark is her radio guest, she gets a call in the long-lasting search for her mom; she doesn't take it seriously, but after the show an assistant shows that the caller, Joanne Lombardi, knew about her secret birthmark. Meanwhile, Jesse warns everybody that his visiting mother is a terror by being too nice- she surprises even him by offering a full partnership in her private practice in Minneapolis. Denise goes looking for Joanna, finds her dead and is arrested. Mark fills in as radio host, and while providing sage advice over the air, snoops at the station. Someone plants the murder weapon in her flat's aquarium, but its obvious place convinces Mark it's a frame; then it appears Joanne was not a mother but turned in the Arriaga family with Immigration, but how can he trap the obvious suspect? Mark Sloan: Dick Van Dyke, Amanda Bentley: Victoria Rowell, Jesse Travis: Charlie Schlatter, Steve Sloan: Barry Van Dyke, Herself: Stephanie Miller, Denise Steiner: Christine Tucci, Jesse's Mother: Kathleen Noone, Himself: Donny Osmond, Herself: Marie Osmond.

"A Tsar is Born." The rift between Martin and his sons' tastes is bridged when they find they are all fans of "The Antique Roadshow." The boys have a great time watching it on TV, and when the Roadshow comes to Seattle, they all go. Martin takes along an old family heirloom, a rather ugly pewter clock. Frasier and Niles are stunned to hear that it was originally made for the Romanovs (the Russian royal dynasty). Believing the clock is a link to their own royal blood, Frasier and Niles launch an investigation into its origins. Frasier Crane: Kelsey Grammer, Daphne Moon: Jane Leeves, Niles Crane: David Hyde Pierce, Roz Doyle: Peri Gilpin, Martin Crane: John Mahoney, Noel Shempsky: Patrick Kerr, Dr. Myshkin: Robertson Dean, Appraiser: Neal Lerner, Stage Manager: Grace Rowe.

10—Chicago Hope

"White Rabbit." A killer virus sweeps through the hospital, killing everyone who catches it. Dr. Aaron Shutt: Adam Arkin, Dr. Jack McNeil: Mark Harmon, Dr. Jeremy Hanlon: Lauren Holly, Dr. Keith Wilkes: Rocky Carroll, Dr. Gina Simon: Carla Gugino, FBI Agent David Hutchins: Brad Blaisdell.

11—Charmed

"That Old Black Magic." When two hikers accidentally free the evil witch Tuatha, she feeds them to her enchanted serpent, just for not knowing where her jeweled wand is, then sends the serpent to find it. It's nearly snatched by charmed Internet-auctioneer Jack, but Prue brings it home. Unfortunately the sisters cannot wield it to vanquish her themselves, the job down to destined schoolboy Kyle. However, he's apparently too scared he won't be trained up in time by Leo, whose improbably frequent presence for a handyman is making neighbor Dan doubt if Piper is over him. Prue Halliwell: Shannen Doherty, Piper Halliwell: Holly Marie Combs, Phoebe Halliwell: Alyssa Milano, Dan Gordon: Greg Vaughan, Leo Wyatt: Brian Krause, Kyle Gwideon: Jay Michael Ferguson, Tuatha: Brigid Brannagh, Jack Sheridan: Lochlyn Munro.

14—Greed: The Multi-Millon Dollar Challenge—Chuck Woolery

8:30 pm

4—Stark Raving Mad

"Engaged to be Engaged." After Henry and Tess announce they're "engaged to be engaged," a practical joke gone wrong leaves Tess believing Henry slept with Maddie. Meanwhile Jake uses Edgar, Ian's dog, to try to pick up women. Ian Stark: Tony Shalhoub, Henry McNeeley: Neil Patrick Harris, Jake Donovan: Eddie McClintock, Tess Farraday: Dorie Barton, Maddie: Heather Paige Kent, Woman: Tami Ross.

7—Whose Line Is It Anyway?—Drew Carey

9:00 pm

4—ER

"The Peace of Wild Things." Benton struggles with the idea of taking a DNA test to determine whether or not Reese is actually his son. As the signs continue to pile up, Kerry and Mark use a fake patient to convince Dr. Lawrence of his Alzheimer's. Carter has trouble persuading a woman from a nursing home fire to sign a DNR for her husband and later is asked to forge charts for a family with no insurance. Carol continues to meddle in Meg's life, having her arrested so that she can be detoxed. Cleo is blamed for an explosion in the suture room but it may actually be Dr. Dave's fault. Mark Greene: Anthony Edwards, John Carter: Noah Wyle, Carol Hathaway: Julianna Margulies, Jeanie Boulet: Gloria Reuben, Kerry Weaver: Laura Innes, Elizabeth Corday: Alex Kingston, Lucy Knight: Kellie Martin, Robert Romano: Paul McCrane.

In Cincy, Wheel and Jeopardy! would move to WXIX (now FOX) after all Scripps-owned stations dropped them in 2012.

In Dayton, Wheel would move to WHIO/CBS, but Jeopardy! remains on NBC (now WDTN) to this day. Dayton is likely the only market in the Eastern Time Zone that carries the two shows on separate stations.

Yikes

ONTV was a movie service that was scrambled on channel 64 at night.

Woody Woodpecker and Scooby-Doo bumped General Hospital in Dayton??? Just wow.

WKBD was actually a FOX affiliate, but FOX aired no programming on Wednesday nights at the time. Also, WGPR aired CBS Late Night programming (five minutes ahead of WTOL)

Ch. 24 became WNWO in 1986. Please make that correction.

How did it work with a Univision LPTV station on UHF 66

when there was a full-power station on that channel just up the road in Flint?

WSMH's current tower site is near Chesaning (and it was likely there dating back to sign-on)

Kind of interesting that they included some of the San Diego stations and all three of the Bakersfield Big Three, but were missing:

KESQ and KMIR from Palm Springs

KNSD, KPBS, and KUSI from San Diego

The UHF Los Angeles independents

I wonder if XETV, KFMB, and KGTV had cable carriage in southwestern Riverside County (KUSI is still carried in Temecula) and the Bakersfield stations were on cable in the Victor Valley

Here's something you missed!

You missed KMEX-TV Channel 34, the nation's most watched Spanish language TV station.

Should have known it would be WLFL 22 (FOX), they operated like the independent channel they started out as pretty much until 1994 when FOX got NFL football.

21 WPTA ABC Fort Wayne

5:00 Ted Knight

I think you mean Too Close For Comfort, because Ted Knight had a self-titled show in 1978 that lasted only one month.

Not the same show in this instance...

The final season of Too Close for Comfort (when Henry and Muriel, with their then-infant son, moved across the water from San Francisco to Marin County) was re-titled "The Ted Knight Show". When the show went into off-network reruns later on (by fall 1987), the Too Close for Comfort title used for all six seasons of the series.

This seems to indicate that WPTA-21 was delaying network programming that year (Indiana did not observe Daylight Saving Time in the Eastern time zone then). They had stopped by the time I moved there in 1988. WTHR in Indianapolis was the first to start delaying network programming in the state, which they did by taking NBC's Mountain Time feed, which lined up perfectly with 8-11pm EST during the DST months.

subtitled in English

There certainly have been lots of changes since back in 2005.

Plenty of new subchannels:

SBS-HD, Viceland, Food, WorldMovies

ABC-HD, Comedy, Me, Kids, News

Seven-HD, Food, Mate, Two, Flix

Nine-HD, Life, Gem, Go!, Nitv

Ten-HD, Bold, Peach

Too many new imported shows and tons of new and old Australian content to list.

In 2005, there were digital subchannels: ABC2 and SBS World News Channel. I can't post ABC2's schedule because it wasn't available at Wayback Machine, but here's the full weekly schedule from the World News Channel from late October/early November 2005.

In Baltimore, WMAR continued to carry nighttime Wheel of Fortune and Jeopardy! (the latter eventually moving to 7:30) after it became an ABC station. They moved to WBFF/FOX in 2012, with J! at 7:00 and WOF at 7:30 (meaning it gets pre-empted by Thursday Night Football and other sports pregames often). WNUV/CW carries reruns of the two shows on Sunday evenings.

WHP Harrisburg continues to carry the shows today, although it took until 2015 for them to finally start airing them in 16:9.

WHAG Hagerstown dropped WOF (and J! once they began carrying it) when it lost its NBC affiliation.

Interesting that Washington DC hadn't been carrying nighttime WOF yet, but Jeopardy!, which was revived in syndication thanks to WOF's success, was carried from the beginning. Both WOF and J! now air on WJLA/ABC at 7:00 and 7:30, respectively. Entertainment Tonight is now carried on WUSA/CBS at 7:30.

WDVM (now WUSA) aired Wheel at the time, but on that night it was preempted. The show aired on weeknights at 7:30pm from September 1983 until September 1990, when it moved to WJLA.

Night before the election.

'The Candidate' was an apt movie selection for that night. I guess you have an election eve theme going this week.

5 Mike Douglas

Who were the co-host and guests on Mike's show that day?

Mike's co-host was Victor Borge and the guests were Barbara McNair, Will Geer, Marty Allen, Roger Caras and The Wheelmen.

Those local editorials were a wonderful thing. Too bad so many good things, like the practice of editorials and equal time and the Television Code are long gone.

Of course, the NAB TV Code was ended as the government determined that it constituted violations of the Sherman Anti-Trust Act due to its restrictions on the quantity, length and certain content in advertising. The NAB agreed to a consent decree in 1982, and the code, now stripped of its principal pillar and subject to scrutiny in its other aspects, soon died.

And the result has been lower quality television, IMO. Of course the demise of the Code was not the only reason for this. While I lament a lack of antitrust enforcement, and related court decisions (The recent decision involving AT&T/Warner was judicial misconduct), in this case, I believe the case was ill conceived and should not have been brought.

Does anyone know what they were like? Also I heard game shows such as Classic Concentration, Super I'm guessing the reruns of Classic Concentration were added a year later. There's one episode from Halloween 1988 with the 1990 Sky One ID in the sans-serif font. Not sure how long these lasted or what episodes were shown. I know in the US, NBC reran it from 1991 to 1993.

CBS had a solid Sunday lineup during this stretch. NBC spent big on 'Amazing Stories' but the ratings couldn't justify the production expense. Some great episodes on that show though including an early role for Kevin Costner in 'The Mission'.

CBS would move both Crazy Like a Fox and Trapper John, MD to Tuesdays at midseason, shortly before cancelling both. The Sunday night movie arrived in January of 1986.

Comparing this to the recent 1989 schedule posted for the same market, I see a downward trend in quality, but note that all night infomercials and a lot of the other regrettable ills that now afflict broadcast TV hadn't yet taken hold. E&I hadn't yet destroyed Saturday morning TV. Things got markedly worse in the following years.

8-25 NYPD Blue (was either 8 or 25 on cable in Jackson, Biloxi or Meridian?)

25 was in Biloxi -- it's their local Fox affiliate. They picked up NYPD Blue when WLOX refused to show it.

Realized that this morning :D...don't know why I put Biloxi in that question, I had originally asked the question for Jackson and Meridian, but had a brain cramp and put Biloxi in there ::)

In January, 1995, WAPT had finally lifted its ban on NYPD: Blue.

Mississippi had a total ban (and was the only state in the nation to have such a ban) on NYPD: Blue--until December, 1994.

In December, 1994, two of Mississippi's five ABC affiliates--WABG (Greenville) and WTOK (Meridian)--lifted their bans on the show.

And in January, 1995, WAPT (Jackson) did the same.

But in March, 1995, WTOK reinstated its ban.

It aired in Biloxi on WXXV from September 1994 for the length of the show's run (until 2005), according to WXXV's Wikipedia article.

Also in 1995, WLOV (northeast Mississippi's ABC affiliate at the time) would drop ABC for FOX. I'm assuming they never aired NYPD Blue while they were ABC.

so was WTOK/channel 11 the only ABC affiliate in Mississippi that aired the show after they reinstated their ban?

Interesting that stations were airing Jeopardy! twice a day as early as 1994. WALA still airs it today under its FOX affiliation, albeit now only once per day at 6:00 PM, with Wheel of Fortune following it at 6:30, except on Thursdays where it's bumped to 2:30 AM due to Thursday Night Football. Most of the other the stations carrying WOF at the time still carry it today, all still at 6:30 Central, of course, except for WWL; both Jeopardy! and Wheel moved to WVUE/FOX by the late 2000's, at 6:00 and 6:30.

Apparently, WXXV (Fox 25)--Gulfport/Biloxi's Fox affiliate--did air NYPD: Blue since WLOX banned the show.

WLOV (Fox 27)--Tupelo's Fox affiliate since 1995--never aired NYPD: Blue. However, WKDH (ABC 45)--Tupelo's new ABC affiliate (2001-2012)--did air the show, believe it or not.

WTOK lifted its ban on NYPD: Blue in December, 1994--but reinstated it in March, 1995. Since then, I'm guessing WTOK never aired NYPD: Blue again.

I was surprised to see Regis & Kathie Lee still on WDBD. I thought it went to WAPT after a year on WDBD On 91.

Retro: Oklahoma City - Week of April 5, 1987

This post looks at the week of April 5-11, 1987. This week saw the rollout of the Fox Broadcasting Company's prime time lineup; Fox began operations on October 6, 1986 with the debut of The Late Show Starring Joan Rivers, with KAUT (channel 43) as the network's charter affiliate for the Oklahoma City market. Fox's prime time efforts began on Sunday, April 5, with the debuts of Married... with Children (which eventually became, and remains as of 2019, the network's longest-running live-action sitcom) and The Tracey Ullman Show (which served as the progenitor of The Simpsons, the longest-running scripted prime time program in U.S. television history, which began as a series of animated shorts that aired during the sketch comedy series, featuring Ullman cast members Dan Castellaneta and Julie Kavner voicing Homer and Marge Simpson, respectively, as well as other characters).

The Fox Broadcasting Company is the only successful effort at a fourth commercial television network in United States television history, eventually gaining stature with a list of early hits like Married... with Children, The Simpsons, Beverly Hills, 90210, 21 Jump Street, Cops, In Living Color and America's Most Wanted and eventually started what has become a very robust sports division with the acquisition of National Football Conference television rights (assumed from CBS) in 1994. The Fox affiliation in Oklahoma City would eventually transfer from KAUT to KOKH-TV (channel 25) – which originally passed over the affiliation in 1986 due to concerns over disruptions to the station's prime time film schedule – in August 1991, after former KAUT owner Heritage Media donated the channel 43 license to the Oklahoma Educational Television Authority (OETA) and purchased channel 25 from Busse Broadcast Holdings.

10:30am - It's Punky Brewster

Curious that this was called It's Punky Brewster everywhere except TV Guide listings and the title card of the show itself (no "It's").

Hey tmanokc,

can you also post

"Retro: Oklahoma City - Week of July 5, 1987"

(the week that the Fox network expanded into Saturday nights)

i just did Amarillo, TX's schedule from the week of February 20-26, 1994, how'd i do on that schedule?

Did the Oklahoman include a cable conversion chart?

Yes. It started off as a text-only list format when cable listings were added in 1982, and switched to a channel chart format when Television News was reformatted in the spring of 1983.

Back when each city had their own lineup, with different providers!

In essence, though, by the late 1980s, the Oklahoma City area basically became served primarily by just two providers, Cox Cable (which served Oklahoma City proper and the unincorporated suburb of Forest Park, and which absorbed a joint venture company that provided cable service from Western Avenue eastward, Pan-Oklahoma Communications, in 1983) and, the provider that Cox would later acquire in 1999, Multimedia Cablevision (which served all other suburbs including Midwest City, Edmond, Yukon, Moore, Norman and Bethany, and acquired a few smaller providers that served exurbs of Oklahoma City). Until sometime in the late 1980s/early 1990s, though, Multimedia didn't have a uniform lineup in every suburb, placing some channels in different slots in places like Norman and Choctaw than where it carried them in the immediate suburbs (its Choctaw system even carried The Movie Channel for a time, whereas Multimedia's other systems in the area didn't carry it).

I always thought that KWTW would air CBS News Nightwatch.

CBS News' Sunday Morning and Face the Nation didn't air back then on KWTW either. I'm surprised neither of the three indies picked-up those shows.

I have to make a correction here. KGMC and WGN were running Filmation's Ghostbusters cartoon, not The Real Ghostbusters. RGB wouldn't enter syndication until the fall of '87; it ran on KOKH in Oklahoma City and WFLD in Chicago.

The cartoon running at 3:30pm on KGMC is Filmation's Ghostbusters. The Real Ghostbusters wasn't in syndication until the fall of 1987, when it would run on KOKH in Oklahoma City.

Thank you, have the listings for Sunday January 6, 1991? I remember catching NWA Pro Wrestling (WCW Pro NY) and WWF Superstars on Saturdays at that time.

Do you also have the listings of Sunday, January 6, 1991?

Looks like WLNY/WLIG was carrying the weekend run of Wheel of Fortune, but not Jeopardy! at the time.

WABC did not begin airing either show on weekends until around 1999.

Great lineups for the weekends in 1991? I wished WNYC became independent in that year besides 1996 because they would've carried shows that other stations didn't carry like NY Knicks, Rangers, Islanders, NJ Devils and Nets games and even WCW Worldwide, IWCCW, LPWA and/or the USWA syndicated shows.

PAX transmitted from Ann Arbor and really had only fringe coverage over much of the market. It didn't get carriage on most cable systems until it flipped to Ion. Too bad, because they carried a lot of great stuff. I would've loved to watch 'Our House'.

Such a lack of christmas programming!

Can you believe it? Such a lack of Christmas programming for December 25th., 1999!

With Y2k and all the special programming for that a week later and all the schedule interruption they cut back I guess.

Yes, it's odd to see a lack of holiday programming. No cartoons, or musical specials on the Big 3. Also interesting seeing the Walt Disney parade all tape-delayed to prime time, just to protect the cartoons. Various holiday specials aired in Seattle that Christmas, including a Fantasia 2000 special on KOMO, and two cartoons on KIRO (Red Boots for Christmas/The Puzzle Club Christmas). It may have not helped that it was Saturday and were already running on weekend schedules, chock full of syndication.

Do you have the sunday schedule for December 26, 1999?

Unbelievable!

I think that they were doing a live nighttime broadcast of the parade.

No NBA on ABC?

Never mind. I didn't realize until now that ABC did not begin broadcasting Christmas NBA until 2002.

Rare to see Wheel of Fortune on a UPN affiliate.

Wheel eventually moved to WKRN. Although it is now on a bigger affiliate, it has the consequence of being pre-empted on a weekly basis during football on either Mondays or Tuesdays (depends on the year; this year it was Tuesday) by a local show on the Titans. It used to air at 7:00 which pre-empted ABC primetime, but then after tons of backlash, it moved to 6:30 in place of Wheel. If this was a thing in 1997, this was likely after the show ended, as the last broadcast in recent years is usually the week of Christmas Day.

Jeopardy! still airs on WUXP at 6:00 (now MyTV), although it is now the show's secondary run of previous-season repeats. The main run now airs on WZTV at 5:00.

Syndicated Wheel and Jeopardy! eventually became separated in Dayton. Jeopardy! is still on NBC (now WDTN), but Wheel now airs on WHIO. Dayton is the only Eastern Time Zone market where the two shows are on separate stations that are not co-owned.

In Cincinnati, both shows eventually moved to WXIX/FOX.

I take it Guiding Light did not air on January 1, 1998 so WBBM did not have a day behind episode to air that day,

I took the schedule from the Tribune's Sunday TV Week supplement. According to the paper's edition of January 2nd, Guiding Light was replaced by a double run of Martha Stewart Living, which also aired that afternoon at 2pm, followed by Gayle King at 2:30.
